We've Got the Victory!

by BRIAN WARREN
Co-Host, The 700 Club Canada

Spiritual warfare is real, crippling and tiresome, but Jesus has already won for us the victory!

Our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms (Ephesians 6:12).

Spiritual warfare, simply put, is a conflict being waged in the invisible, spiritual realm that is being manifested in the visible, physical realm. We all know how hard it is to fight an enemy we can see, and it's even harder to fight an opponent we can't see, which makes spiritual warfare so challenging to wrap our brains around. Yet Jesus, who knew we would be living in what is arguably the greatest time in history, declared, "I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world" (John 16:33). Go God!

Are you in a battle today and finding it difficult to muster up the courage or the words to tell the devil to back up and get lost? Let this powerful truth be your guide. Pray along with Jesus who lives to make intercession for His people with these words, and let the Lord break the chains of fear and bondage over you as you claim this promise from Romans 16:20: The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you. We've got the victory!

Scripture is taken from the NIV.

YOUR QUESTIONS, HONEST ANSWERS

WITH PAT ROBERTSON

Q I have two adult children who have strayed from God. I pray for them every day, but I'm wondering if I'm praying correctly. How can I pray for them effectively?

A It's important that you continuously praise God in advance and believe as a fact that they will come back to the faith. In the Old Testament, it was Samuel who said, "God forbid that I should sin by ceasing to pray for you." In other words, you just keep on praying and keep on praising God even if you don't see any changes.

The Bible says in Proverbs 22:6, Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. Therefore, if you raised your two children according to what God says in the Bible, when they grow older, they'll come back to the Lord—as you hold on and stay faithful with your prayers for them. Don't give up on them and don't ever stop praying.

USING SOCIAL MEDIA

to Spread the Gospel

The ministry of The 700 Club Canada reaches millions of people every day with the message of God's love. Gordon Robertson, our Board Chairman, says, "Our goal is to be wherever there are eyes looking at screens." Those screens include computers, tablets, smartphones, as well as televisions.

One of our most exciting and fruitful methods of engagement has been social media. According to recent statistics, more than 25 million people in Canada use social media.

We have gathered thousands of followers across our Facebook, YouTube, Instagram and Twitter pages. Through these networks, we share and stream our full-length episodes daily with our online audience.

We also upload individual segments and exclusive online content for our followers to share with their families and friends, multiplying our reach to tens of thousands of people every month.

On Instagram and Twitter, we publish encouraging messages, Scripture verses, and updates, giving our many friends a behind-the-scenes look at the production of our show and frequent updates on the developments of the ministry.

Social media gives us the ability to quickly respond to prayer requests directly online. We receive messages from across the world with candid, heartfelt prayer requests. People entrust us with the joys, sorrows and trials of their lives. We consider it a privilege to

Lessons I've Learned as a Mom

by LORIE HARTSHORN

Co-Host, The 700 Club Canada

I have the privilege of being a mom to three children, two daughters-in-law, and now two beautiful granddaughters.

In my 30 years of parenting, I've learned that raising children:

- Strips you of selfishness, if you'll let it
- Shows you what unconditional love looks like and feels like
- Gives you lots of opportunity to practice patience
- Grows your capacity to forgive and show grace
- Keeps you humble
- Costs more than you could imagine
- Fills up your love tank
- Brings laughter and heartache
- Keeps you on your knees

Parenting is a privilege and when your kids are young, everyone tells you to enjoy each moment because it will fly by. Isn't that so true? When we look at Scripture we see that family is God's idea and He does everything in a family system. We see a Father and Son relationship in the Trinity and when we choose to follow Jesus, we then become children of God and brothers and sisters in His family. Even the church is described as a family.

The truth is, our spiritual family will last for eternity so when I view my earthly family members as a brother or sister in the Lord, it enables me to see them as one of God's kids and to treat them as such. So whether you're a parent or not, cherish the family you have. They are a gift from God used to shape you and teach you. Give them a hug today and tell them how much they are loved.

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! (1 John 3:1 NIV) communicate our prayers with them individually. Many others on social media join with us in praying for individuals who send their online requests. It is a powerful and beautiful thing to see God's family join together in love using a medium where passion for the Lord isn't always embraced.

Our co-host Lorie Hartshorn often checks in with our audience via video with behind-the-scenes moments from our tapings, mini-devotions from her backyard, and special prayers for our followers. Many viewers send their comments back to Lorie, expressing their thanks for her personal touches.

Sharing testimonies has also been a popular and effective evangelism tool on social media. We recently shared the testimony of Cyndi Wilkens—a Canadian woman who became a quadruple amputee after contracting a flesh-eating disease that nearly killed her. Her story has exploded on our social media networks! On Facebook and YouTube, the video has reached tens of thousands of people and has been shared many times over. Testimonies like Cyndi's are being seen all across Canada! We thank the Lord for this wonderful tool of social media that is now multiplying our efforts to evangelize the nation of Canada.

Thank you for your faithful support as we continue to steward these tools for God's glory. We are so blessed that we have these avenues to share the Gospel with the people of Canada, "wherever there are eyes looking at screens." Join us online at 700Club.ca.

THE BEST WAY TO KNOW GOD

by GORDON ROBERTSON,
Chief Executive Officer, CBN

And Jesus promises in John 10:27, “My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.”

One of the great prayers of the Bible is found in Exodus 33:13, where Moses prays, “Let me know Your ways that I may know You.” It’s interesting that he prays this after seeing great miracles. The Red Sea has divided under his rod. God has provided water, manna and quail for the people in the wilderness. And yet Moses is saying, “I see Your mighty acts, but I want to know who You are.”

And it’s from the knowledge of Him that the mighty acts come. As Daniel 11:32 says, “The people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits” (NKJV).

So how do we come to know Him?

One of the best ways is to spend time alone with Him in your secret place each day. Read Scripture, then ask God to show it to you. How amazing to think that you can ask the Author of the Bible to come alongside you and explain His Word!

While you pray and meditate upon Scripture, ask God for revelations. As young Samuel said, “Speak, for Your servant is listening” (1 Samuel 3:10).

And Jesus promises in John 10:27, “My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.”

As you open up to heaven, heaven opens up in you. Don’t limit your access to God with anger or frustration. Pour out your problems to Him, then rest assured that He is able to take care of them all.

He wants you to be healed. He wants you to have righteousness, peace and joy. And He wants to reveal Himself to you in that secret place. God bless you.

This teaching was given on 700 Club Interactive. Scripture is quoted from the NASB except as noted.
