A Winning Prescription

by BRIAN WARREN

Co-Host, The 700 Club Canada

Heaven has the best first-aid kit! Psalm 34:1 says, I will praise the LORD at all times. I will constantly speak His praises (NLT). David reveals a game changer for anyone desiring freedom in an area where they need healing and deliverance. I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all of my fears (Psalm 34:4 KJV).

David discovered that by mixing his faith with his praise he was able to experience divine deliverance. Faith and praise are arguably the most important aspects of every believer's life. But they are also some of the most sought-out targets of Satan, who works tirelessly to get you and me to look at life through the lens of situations, circumstances, lack and limitations, to get us to judge God's faithfulness based on what we feel and see (facts) rather than by what God says in His Word (faith).

But David, as his top priority, sought the Lord, his Great Physician, for a solution to his troubles and found deliverance from all of his fears. And so can we! Child of God, faith and praise are heaven's supernatural "time-release" medicines, meaning the time that you need help, it will be released.

No matter what! Practice preventative medicine by praising God by faith in all situations and at all times. Take two Psalm 34s! Then, like David, you too will be sure not to slip into a valley of fear or discouragement or be drawn into a paralyzed state of frustration. It's sweet medicine. Nothing is impossible with God!

YOUR QUESTIONS, HONEST ANSWERS

WITH PAT ROBERTSON

When I pray, do I always need to ask for forgiveness of my sins—or was that taken care of when I gave my life to Jesus? What is the right way to pray?

Theologian John Wesley said there wasn't a day that went by when he didn't plead the blood of Jesus to forgive him of his sins.

First John 1:7 says, If we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. In the Greek, it's present tense, which means He continuously cleanses us.

The right way to pray starts with allowing Him to live in you, forgiving not hating. God is a spirit, so we must worship Him in spirit and in truth. Our spirits need to be right with Him. That comes through constant fellowship with Him, praying without ceasing.

WHEN THE HUNGRY, POOR AND NEEDY CALLED OUT FOR HELP, YOU WERE THERE

Thanks to you, people in need were helped at our partner ministry's annual community fair.

YOU ARE A CHERISHED AND VITAL PART OF THE LORD'S WORK ACROSS CANADA!

Ever since The 700 Club began broadcasting in Canada, this ministry has been dedicated to supporting the Canadian people, not only through TV evangelism and prayer lines, but also by joining with other ministries to provide financial, emotional and spiritual support to people in desperate need. We are so thankful for you, because you make these blessings possible.

YOU WERE THERE when we partnered with Union Gospel Mission to host the Summer Connect Day, a community fair that serves the homeless in Vancouver, British Columbia. Because of you, 44 essential service providers were there to help remove barriers to housing, employment, legal aid, healthcare, and much more.

YOU WERE THERE with us this past Easter when a little girl gave her life to Christ through one of our Superbook events! She and her family now attend church every Sunday. This sweet child now goes from person to person each week, greeting the members of her new church community with a welcoming smile and loving hugs. Her mother says all her children love Superbook! Without the support of partners like you, our Superbook events would never be able to reach the lost. What a wonderful blessing you are!

YOU ARE THERE all summer long as the Metro Kids Society reaches children through their “Sidewalk Kids Klub” outreach programs! Kids from underprivileged neighbourhoods partake in games, songs and contests with the staff and receive valuable Christian life lessons through teaching time and Superbook episodes.

Sharing God's love through outreaches to underprivileged children.

Praying for the hurting

YOU WERE THERE when a partner called us asking for healing for her nephew who had been abusing drugs and alcohol. We immediately prayed for the nephew and encouraged his aunt. Today he is finding his way back to the Lord and entering a rehab centre. Praise God!

These are just a few examples of the lives you have transformed through your generous giving. Without your help, many would continue without hope with no way out. Thank you for making a difference in Jesus' name—and for providing a brighter future for millions!

YOU KEEP US GOING! We can't thank you enough!

Do not withhold good from those who deserve it when it's in your power to help them.

THE 700 CLUB CANADA

Does Work Matter to God?

by LORIE HARTSHORN

Co-Host, The 700 Club Canada

How many jobs have you had? When I look back on my life I counted 28 jobs—from garbage picking to teaching to TV host. 28!

I admit that I didn't enjoy every job. Particularly the garbage picking! So here's a question for you. Does your work matter to God?

Looking at Scripture you can find 850 verses that talk about work. So God has a lot to say on the matter. If we start at the beginning in Genesis we see that God is a worker. He's creating the earth and when He looks at His work God saw all that he had made, and it was very good (Genesis 1:31NIV). God enjoys His work and takes the time to reflect on it. We are told that we are made in the image or likeness of God. One of the ways that we are to reflect the image of God in our life is through our work. No matter what job we do, whether it is one that we find personally fulfilling or not, we have an opportunity to show people who God is by the way that we do our work. Colossians 3:23-24 says, Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving (NIV).

This verse is a great reminder that no matter what we do we should work at it with all our heart. Not only will we receive a reward, but more importantly we are working for Christ! This should be a game changer in how we view our work. Christians should be the best workers, no matter the task, as it is one of the ways that we show Christ to others because work matters to God.

WATCH AND BE AMAZED

REMAINING FAITHFUL

By the age of 21, Jordan had paid off all $24,000 of his student loans in one year. Raised to believe that it is important to be a good steward of his money, he went on to share these beliefs with his future wife, and they learned how important it is to give—even when money is tight.

TRYING TO CHANGE

Monica's drug addiction had led her down a dark path—a path she tried desperately to hide. Several times she broke free from the drugs, only to fall back in again and again. It wasn't until she met a man who had once shared her struggles that everything changed. You won't want to miss her story.

THE PERFECT MATCH

Both Josh and Ashley longed for marriage and to finally meet the person that God had for each of them. But individually, they both had to learn how to get closer to God first. Hear how God finally led them towards each other.

A REVELATION FOR TODAY

The LORD...forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin

by GORDON ROBERTSON
Chief Executive Officer, CBN

Moses prays an amazing prayer in Exodus that should be ours today.

First, let's set the context. Moses meets with God on Mount Sinai and receives the Ten Commandments. However, back at camp, the Israelites are engaging in pagan revelry and worshiping a golden calf. God is ready to wipe them out and make a new nation from Moses. Yet, acting as a type of Christ, Moses intercedes: "Forgive their sin—but if not, I pray, blot me out of Your book" (Exodus 32:32).

The Lord relents, and Moses asks: "Show me now Your way, that I may know You and that I may find grace in Your sight" (Exodus 33:13).

Here is Moses, who has spent a considerable amount of time in God's presence, saying, "I need to know You more. I see Your acts, but I want to know Your way." By asking this, Moses is asking to know God's name—meaning His very nature. It's a great prayer that we should make our own.

Moses then asks to see the Lord's glory, and God replies: "I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you"—agreeing to reveal His name and nature. He continues, "I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion" (v. 19).

We did not choose God; He chose us. We deserve a penalty for our sins, yet He had compassion and grace for us. And He has chosen us for service—not just for all eternity, but for right now.

Exodus 34:6-7 records the great revelation that God gives Moses and the people of Israel—and it's a revelation we can pray today: The LORD passed before him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin."

So let's remember God's wonderful attributes as we pray for Canada, for its leaders, and for all Canadians. Let's ask the Lord to reveal Himself, to show His mercy and grace, to forgive our sins, and to heal the land.

May God bless you.

WHERE ARE THE TREASURES NOW?

Hosted by Gordon Robertson, CBN Documentaries presents a story of mystery. Why did the unimaginable wealth contained in Jerusalem's Second Temple seem to carry a curse to every place it rested?

The pages of ancient history, modern archaeology, and the Bible itself have lured treasure-seeking explorers to attempt to piece together this puzzling mystery.

Now the CBN Documentaries team has traced the journey of the treasure and uncovered more tantalizing clues to its final resting place.
