Quarantine Spring Cleaning

by BRIAN WARREN

Co-Host, The 700 Club Canada

Hebrews 11:8 says, By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going (NKJV). God did not tell Abraham where He was going. He didn't send advance notice, because He wanted Abraham to stay in a condition of readiness for change. I believe that many today are hearing the call of the Spirit to a higher place in God. God is always calling us to a higher place! But one of the greatest battles we fight is that of the familiar. Even though something or someplace may be difficult—dry and desolate—once we become familiar with it, we become comfortable in it.

Moving, I've discovered, is an interesting process. A. Everything is chaotic—everything is moved out of its place and the familiar routine is replaced by confusion and disorder. B. Nothing is convenient—everything you want seems to be the hardest thing to get. Sound like 2020? C. A lot of things are unneeded—When you start to move, you realize how many of the things you've accumulated are outdated and unnecessary. A lot of what you accumulate at one place, you don't need at the next place.

Friends, this is a spiritual truth we learn from moving in the natural world. I don't know about you, but there are some things I am ready to leave behind: some doubts, fears, disappointments, discouragements and mindsets. Like Abraham, the father of faith, I'm ready to let go of some traditions that have no power. As we move out of "quarantine" into this new season, let's do some spiritual spring cleaning that will make us better for Christ and for His kingdom!

Inspiration TO LIVE BY

Walking with God is an amazing adventure—a living, breathing, day-by-day, hour-by-hour, minute-by-minute relationship.

In this time of uncertainty and adversity, nothing is more comforting than words of encouragement and reassurance. Remember that even in the worst of times, God still has the world in His hand and a plan for each and every one of us. May these words offer hope and inspiration as you forge ahead in Christ.

"Walking with God is an amazing adventure—a living, breathing, day-by-day, hour-by-hour, minute-by-minute relationship. It's not a bunch of rules, formulas or disciplines. He won't hand us a spiritual GPS showing the shortest route to our next destination and then disappear. He promises never to leave us nor forsake us. He may reveal only part of His plan initially, but as we step out in obedience, He'll give us greater revelation. The journey is important. It's how we grow in faith, intimacy and sanctification." —Pat Robertson

"Begin today to practice the presence of the Lord—to enjoy His company, and to recognize and obey His voice. Then, when the unexpected challenges and discouragements of life come your way, you will respond like David and encourage yourself in the Lord." —Terry Meeuwsen

"Jesus always lives to make intercession. That is a pretty incredible statement. We know where He is right now, seated at the right hand of the Father. If He can connect your heart to the right hand of the Father, nothing we pray for seems too much or too big for God to accomplish." —Gordon Robertson

700 CLUB CANADA PARTNERS ARE MAKING AN ETERNAL DIFFERENCE TO A NATION IN COVID-19 CRISIS

You bring salvation to the hurting

As our nation is virtually shut down because of COVID-19, the impact on families and businesses is staggering. Unemployment skyrockets, schools are closed, and parents who have depended on lunch programs now struggle to feed their children. No one is unaffected by the “new normal.”

Waves of compassion

However, in the wake of this storm of suffering, wonderful waves of compassion arose—not only from courageous first responders, but also from a citizens’ army of heroes and heroines. You stood up to bear burdens, feed the hungry, offer hope and prayer, and share the Good News of Jesus. Because of you we were able to partner with ministries like Windsor Life Centre, Women’s Teen Challenge, and Safe Hope Home to make sure those struggling with addictions were kept safe and had support resources during this difficult time. We partnered with The Scott Mission, Yonge Street Mission, and Union Gospel Mission as we heard reports of how their meal programs had seen a substantial increase as those in the homeless community and those struggling with poverty were being hit extremely hard.

“This is a big help”

Thanks to your prayers and support we partnered with Samaritan’s Purse Canada and they were able to assist 90 families that reached out for help when two northern Alberta communities were damaged by flooding forcing thousands to evacuate. "This is a big help," Gerry gratefully said as he watched volunteers coming and going from his home, many of them carrying tools or removing damaged drywall.

Your support provides food and supplies.

Prayer changes lives

The pandemic has truly offered a unique opportunity for sharing the Gospel. The Prayer Centre Chaplain says they are receiving noticeably more calls at our 24-hour Prayer Centre, as well as a considerable increase in the number of people praying to receive Christ as their Saviour—thanks to you. She said, "The Prayer Centre agents are on the front lines spiritually, offering the love and faith of Jesus Christ in times of anxiety, loss and uncertainty." One member of the prayer team received a call from a man named Billy who was having suicidal thoughts. When we asked Billy if he wanted to accept Jesus Christ as his Saviour, he said yes. As he prayed, he reported that the heaviness began to lift! Thank you for offering Billy a lifeline in troubling times. You are transforming lives every day.

Exchange Your Burdens for Rest

by LORIE HARTSHORN
Co-Host, The 700 Club Canada

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28).

We all have times of feeling weary and burdened by something. This verse tells us what Jesus will give us in exchange for our burdens: His rest. What does His rest look like? Is it simply permission to take a nap? Although that might be a good idea, Jesus tells us in the previous verse that He will reveal the Father to us.

Jesus overcomes our weariness by showing us the Father.

When we are weary with too much to do—Jesus shows us that the Father will give us the grace to do whatever He calls us to do. (2 Corinthians 9:8)

When we face tough decisions—Jesus shows us that the Father will give us all the wisdom we need for every decision we face. (James 1:5)

When we are exhausted by setbacks—Jesus shows us the Father's all-satisfying presence (Psalm 65:5-6) and that He has had a wise and loving purpose for every setback. (Jeremiah 29:11)

Today, bring your weariness and your burdens to the Father, through Jesus. Lay them at His feet. He will give you everything you need. He promises.

Pray. Lord Jesus, I bring my weariness to You. I want to exchange my burdens for Your rest. Show me who the Father is and give me the faith to rest in His provision. Amen. Scripture is taken from the NIV.

BEAUTIFUL SURRENDER

Jacob strived hard for perfection and attention. He had a promising future ahead of him in sports, but was unable to pass a drug test. Addiction and depression ruled his life until one day, he surrendered in the last way he ever thought he would. You won't want to miss his story of redemption.

NOT BULLETPROOF

Raised in a rough neighbourhood, Greg's mother tried to shield him from a life of crime. Eventually, Greg began selling drugs, and nearly lost his life to stray bullets. Even with all his close calls, he couldn't avoid prison. But it was behind bars that he truly became free. Stay tuned to see his miraculous change.

MIRACLE BABY

Sarah's pregnancy had been safe and uneventful—until delivery. With little hope for the baby's survival, and a diagnosis that the child was brain-dead, Sarah refused to give up hope, and prayed. The result is nothing short of miraculous.

AIRING EVERY FRIDAY

The 700 Club Canada Hosts Answer YOUR Questions

“How do I fit prayer into a packed schedule?”

BRIAN: If you don't prioritize it, you won't do it. The Bible does say in 1 Thessalonians, chapter 5, to pray without ceasing. You never think about how many times your heart beats in a day. It should be the same way with prayer—it has to be like breathing. But unless we intentionally make it a priority, we're not going to even go into a prayer time. Depending on our lives, sometimes we'll have more time or less time. The more things that you have going on in your life, the more you have to make prayer a priority, and make it the first thing that you do. When you cease to pray, you become the prey.

Standing on the Promise of His Peace

Jesus is at the right hand of the Father right now, interceding for us.

by GORDON ROBERTSON
President and CEO, CBN

This month, let's take special time to pray. We are living in perilous times, and we must navigate through unprecedented storms and uncharted waters.

We can find great comfort in Isaiah 9:6-7, which promises:

For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David and over His kingdom, to order it and establish it with judgment and justice from that time forward, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

How reassuring to know that the government is on His shoulders! It's a government of everlasting increase and peace, and the Lord of hosts will perform it.

Because of His overwhelming love for you, Jesus went to the cross. He died. He rose again. Right now He is at the right hand of the Father—and what is He doing? He is interceding for you and for me.

And His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

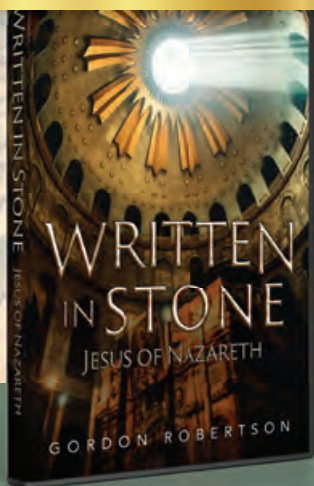

So let's enter into that place of peace. It's not something we must do, it's something He has already done. When we have that attitude, we have true freedom to pray—not with anxiety, but in quiet confidence.

So as we pray for our nation, let's stand in faith together, having the full assurance that we are interceding in accordance with His will, His government, and His peace. And His Word tells us that when we ask, He will answer.

May God bless you.
