BEHIND THE VERSES: THE BIBLE BACKGROUND

“Jesus in the Wilderness” Bible Background:

When Jesus visited Jerusalem for Passover with his parents, he was found sitting on the temple steps, listening to the teachers and asking them questions. Although Solomon’s Temple had been destroyed by the Babylonians, it was rebuilt after the exile and later greatly expanded by King Herod, who added the massive platform known as the Temple Mount. Some scholars believe these steps near the southern entrance of the Temple Mount are close to the very place where Jesus spoke with the teachers.

This map highlights several key locations from the episode. Capernaum is where Jesus healed the paralyzed man and forgave his sins. From there, the group crossed the Sea of Galilee to reach Gergesa. Because of its geography, the Sea of Galilee is prone to sudden storms with waves reaching up to seven feet high—the same waters Jesus calmed during one such storm.

“Jesus Feeds the Hungry” Bible Background:

The first miracle seen in this episode took place in Cana during a wedding ceremony. At the wedding, Jesus turned water into wine. Servants filled large stone jars like these in the image with water. Each of these jars could contain 20-30 gallons of liquid. Altogether, Jesus made about 150 gallons of wine in all the stone jars that were used.

BEHIND THE VERSES: THE BIBLE BACKGROUND

“Teach Us to Pray” Bible Background:

At the beginning of the episode, Jesus is shown praying on a mountain when his appearance and clothing become radiant—an event known as the Transfiguration. Though the exact location is debated, it is traditionally believed to have taken place on Mount Tabor. The image shows the ruins of an early church built to commemorate this moment, later replaced by the Church of the Transfiguration, which remains open today.

Matthew—called Levi at the beginning of the episode—was a tax collector before following Jesus. His tax booth stood along a main road in Capernaum, where many travelers passed by. In the episode, Levi gives a man a tax receipt. Such receipts were not always written on paper; the image to the left shows an ostrakon, a piece of broken pottery used much like scrap paper to record receipts and other important information.

“Jesus – Friend of Sinners” Bible Background:

“Lazarus” Bible Background:

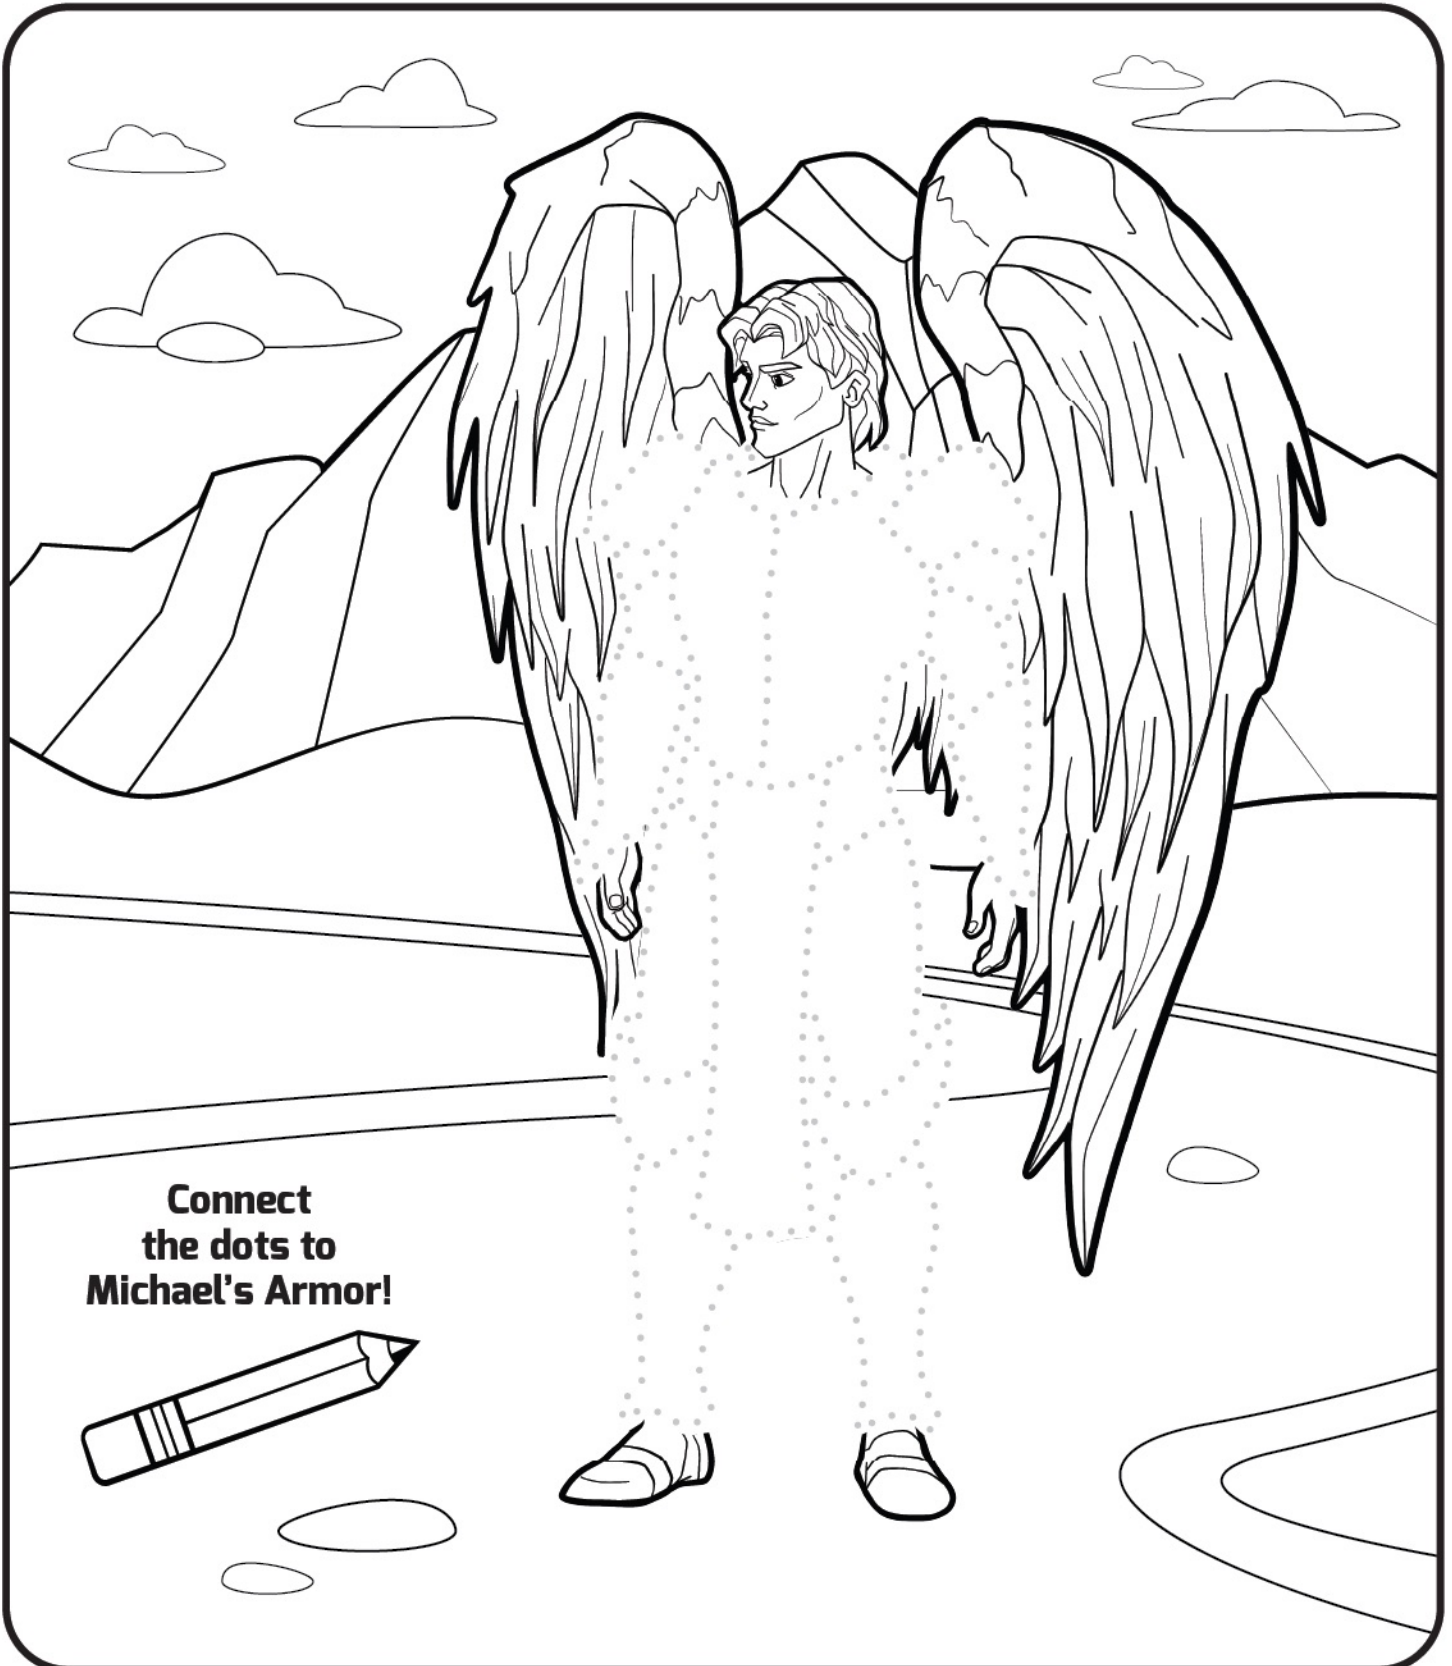

According to tradition, after being raised from the dead, Lazarus fled the priests in Bethany and later became bishop of Cyprus, shepherding the church there for 30 years until his second death. Archaeologists later uncovered a crypt beneath the Church of St. Lazarus in Larnaca, Cyprus, where they found what many believe to be his tomb, bearing the inscription, “Lazarus, four days dead and the friend of Christ.” The tomb can be seen in the image to the left.
